New Mexico Junior College Strategic Plan 2005-2010
New Mexico Junior College, the first junior college in New Mexico, officially came into existence on July 1, 1965, following an October 1964 county-wide election, as provided by the 1963 Junior College Act passed by the New Mexico legislature. A junior college board was appointed to call an election to create a New Mexico Junior College district, approve an operational levy, select NMJC’s first president and call for a subsequent election for the issuance of general obligation bonds. This same board served until standing for election to staggered terms in February 1967. NMJC began classes in September 1966 and has continued to enjoy the support, planning, hard work, and good wishes of district taxpayers that resulted in the academic excellence, fine faculty, facilities, and beautiful campus that has become the comprehensive community college of today.

NMJC receives tax-based financial support from the college district consisting of Hobbs, Jal, Lovington, Tatum, and Eunice public school districts. In Lea County, you will not have to search far to find one of the thousands of people whose lives have been favorably touched due to the existence of NMJC. Through its years of service, NMJC has reaffirmed and expanded a commitment to provide the people and communities of the college district with a wide range of academic, vocational, technical, enrichment, economic, and extended learning opportunities.

Strategic Plan Overview

Strategic Planning is simply thinking about where we want to go and how we want to get there. It involves everyone who has a stake in the future of the college. To date, the strategic plan represents the collective ideas of the various stakeholders: the community, the students, the faculty and staff; and finally, the board must approve this very important document.

Every three years New Mexico Junior College (NMJC) engages in a two-day Strategic Planning Board Work Session. It is extremely important to involve many different stakeholders in the planning process. The following is an overview of individuals invited to participate in the 2004 Strategic Planning Board Work Session:

- Lea County Legislators
- Lea County Public Schools
- Lea County Municipalities
- Lea County Economic Development
- College of the Southwest
- Eastern New Mexico University
- Commission on Higher Education
- New Mexico Association of Community Colleges
- New Mexico Junior College Foundation
- Local Media
- New Mexico Junior College Faculty, Staff, and Students

After gathering input from the college community, the Strategic Planning Team established the goals and objectives necessary to support NMJC’s mission, vision, and values for the 2005-2010 Strategic Plan. The planning system for New Mexico Junior College consists of synergistically interweaving several components together to provide the impetus to move the college forward. The components are:

- Strategic Plan
  The strategic plan is the long-range outlook that gives needed information and direction to the college for growth over the next five years. Strategic Plan progress is updated annually to ensure progress and accountability.

- Master Plan
  The Campus Master Plan utilizes the Strategic Plan to give needed information and provide direction for campus growth and expansion.

- Budget Plan
  The Budget Plan provides the resource requirements to achieve the Strategic Plan.
