Math Professors Attend Conference and Articulation Meeting
by Shyla McGill, Mathematics Professor

On April 12-14 Patricia Youngblood and Shyla McGill from the NMJC Math Department presented at the joint conference for the New Mexico Mathematical Association of Two Year Colleges and Mathematical Association of America Southwest Region. They presented Math Manipulatives used in Basic Math through College Algebra. Their presentation was well received.

They also attended the state wide mathematics articulation meeting to add our new Mathematics for Elementary Teacher II class to the transfer matrix. The transfer matrix is being rewritten due to software issues. Pat and Shyla had to defend how our courses should transfer into 4-year schools and verify what courses from other colleges would transfer into NMJC.

Discover NMJC was a successful event. We had 361 students sign-in, and we handed out 355 t-shirts to students. We estimate that we had at least 375 guests on campus since the adults who accompanied the students did not sign in nor did a few late arrivals. The student evaluations were positive, with students noting that they enjoyed the academic interaction.
A raffle to raise money for the Staff & Maintenance Scholarship fund was held for a 1966 Ford Mustang. Holding the keys is winner, Marc Fields, who is pictured with NMJC staff Willy Miller, Kim Latimer, Katy Short, Randy Johns, and Amy Solano.

On March 3 the Community Band presented An Afternoon of Jazz.
