

A large, faint watermark of the New Mexico Junior College seal is centered in the background. The seal is circular with a scalloped outer edge. Inside the seal, the words "NEW MEXICO JUNIOR COLLEGE" are written in a serif font along the top arc, and "EST. 1965" is written along the bottom arc. The center of the seal features a stylized sunburst or starburst design with vertical lines. Two small stars are positioned on the left and right sides of the seal, flanking the bottom text.
