

Automotive Technology Applicant Process

1. Contact the recruiter for program information and application:

Maria Ceballos
NMJC Automotive Technical
Program Specialist
(575) 602-2873
(575) 492-2860
mceballos@nmjc.edu

2. Apply for admission to New Mexico Junior College: Complete a FREE NMJC online application:

https://www.nmjc.edu/admission/apply_online/index.aspx

Note: Admission to New Mexico Junior College does not mean acceptance into the Ford ASSET Program unless all special requirements of the Ford ASSET have been met.

3. Secure some funding:

- Fill out FAFSA application (<http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/>) for financial aid (FAFSA Application deadline is June 30)
- Apply for Foundation scholarships (Scholarship applications open January 1st and the deadline is March 31st):
<http://www.nmjc.edu/student services/financialaid/scholarshipsandgrants.aspx>
- Send all official transcripts of high school and other college credit to Registrar's Office after graduation.

4. Complete a Ford ASSET candidate application. Reach out to our recruiter for application due dates in the Fall and Spring.

5. Find a sponsoring dealership. Contact, schedule, and attend the dealership for a sponsorship interview. Recruiter can provide assistance if needed.

6. Interview for the Ford ASSET Program. Interview can be scheduled through the recruiter and can be done in person or over the phone.
